Abstract of Letters received & read to the Society

1755

Tuesday 18 Febry 1755.

2212 Mr Samxay at Telcet 20 Dec<sup>r</sup> that he had sent a Discourse on a Text of Scripture, wherein by a short Comparison of y<sup>e</sup> doctrine & morality of our Saviour to that of y<sup>e</sup> Heathens & of Mahomet is shewn the excellency of the Christian Religion, & that if the Society should be of Opinion, that it will be of any service to y<sup>e</sup> Cause of Christianity in this degenerate Age, he would commit it to y<sup>e</sup> Society's Press, & that his design was to publish more Discourses of this kind under the Title (as monthly Productions are now much in Vogue) of a Collection of Discourses on several Texts of Scripture to be published Monthly.
From the same Gentleman 7 Febry returned the Society Thanks for so kindly giving

22122 M<sup>r</sup> Gawthorpe at Ripley 14. Feb<sup>y</sup> that y<sup>e</sup> Executors of the Obedient Commisary <sup>(2<sup>d</sup> Struttford)</sup> had given him £12. to be laid out in Religious books to be distributed among y<sup>e</sup> Poor of 15 Parishes in the Deanry of Boreoughbridge, w<sup>ch</sup> he humbly begs to be favoured wth on the Terms of the Society, returning his Thanks for a former Packet. In the same Letter M<sup>r</sup> Gawthorpe acquaints the Society, that last Winter about 30. Persons joined themselves into a Religious Society and met at his House every Saturday Night. But as several Old Persons could not walk from y<sup>e</sup> extreme parts of the Parish, therefore they now meet at 3 distant Houses on Tuesdays, Thursdays & Fridays & on Saturday night in y<sup>e</sup> Church. That there are 190 Families in his Parish, half of w<sup>ch</sup> & some out of the Neighbouring Parishes, meet regularly. He concludes imploring y<sup>e</sup> Divine Blessing on y<sup>e</sup> Designs of y<sup>e</sup> Society.

glad to hear of the Bp of Exeter's preaching y<sup>e</sup> Sermon at the Anniversary Meeting of the religious Societys and that as the designs of those Societys are not sufficiently known in y<sup>e</sup> Country he had good hopes if his Last y<sup>e</sup>s Sermon appeared in print it would prove of great service to the Publick

Thanks for their so candid acceptance of y<sup>e</sup> reason assigned for withdrawing his Subscription.

the Box & Parcel of Books sent him in Dec<sup>r</sup> & found all right. And that a friend in London would discharge his Debt, and likewise Pay his Sub<sup>s</sup> & a Benefaction from his Neighbour M<sup>r</sup> Dalton.

heartly Thanks to y<sup>e</sup> Society, from whom he had rec<sup>d</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Month before the Cert. Prayers & Duties of Men, w<sup>ch</sup> he shad disposed wth y<sup>e</sup> utmost Care & that they were a most welcome Present. That he would have gladly expressed his gratitude by sending 3 or 4 Dollars, but he had nothing, & they of y<sup>e</sup> Island were in a miserable Condition.

22127 M<sup>r</sup> Jenkins at Hanoverstyd 3 Feb<sup>y</sup> that he had received y<sup>e</sup> Books, but no Bill or Letter, w<sup>ch</sup> as having miscarried, as he apprehends, he had sent fresh Directions.

22128 M<sup>r</sup> Dale at Rochport 15 Feb<sup>y</sup> that altho he had been long silent for want of something to communicate worthy y<sup>e</sup> Societys Notice, yet he had not forgotten yearly to add his mite by an unknown Friend towards forwarding y<sup>e</sup> Societys Pious & laudable Designs.
recommending M<sup>r</sup> Wright Esq. a Gentleman of strict Piety & extensive Charity in those Parts for a member

 considerably enlarged this Winter, by a voluntary Donation of some well dispos'd Ladies of that Town, to some Soldiers quarter'd amongst them. And as the Distribution of such Helps was left to him, he thought it his Duty to give some Advice with them. It was not without grief that he found them totally ignorant of all Christian Principles, & that there were upwards of one hundred with whom he convers'd, & those too of least Twenty Counties in England, there was not one of them that had been taught the Principles of Religion in his younger days. and this he apprehend must be owing to the neglect of Publick schooling.

M<sup>r</sup> A. D. Denne at Rochester
Sir

Yo<sup>r</sup> Favour of yesterdays date is come to hand accompanied with the Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Proceed<sup>s</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Society w<sup>ch</sup> you have been so obliging to correct and prepare for the Press. This I shall not fail of communicating to y<sup>e</sup> Board at their next Meeting. I had occasion to write to the Bp of Norwich about a fortnight ago, when I took the liberty of reminding his Ldship of the Ann<sup>y</sup> Sermon. A Bill of M<sup>r</sup> Volzins for £.50. has been tendered for the Paym<sup>t</sup> of the Salary at Benzer, up to the 1st Novem<sup>r</sup> next, wth your leave, Sir, I will accept this Bill. Col: Hudson call'd this Morn<sup>g</sup> & enquir'd after yo<sup>r</sup> Health.

Mr Daubrie at Aldrich

I have had an opportunity of laying yr. MS. Collection of singing Ps. before the Society, and of taking their Opinion thereon. The Board very much approve of yr. design, & w. have given it all the Encouragem<sup>ts</sup> <sup>you</sup> could have wish'd, if some difficulties that presently occur'd could have been got over. Of w<sup>ch</sup> one or two arose from the MS. itself. You observe in y<sup>r</sup> Preface, "that some few words have here and there been changed & others added in order the better to carry on the connection & to compleat the sense". The Society's remark upon this, was, that they could not take upon them to authorise such alterations & additions <sup>which</sup> must be done by an Order of Council. You go on & say

"At the end are added some Ps. & Hymns proper for Christmas Day &c. & some particular days & occasions." The Society say that neither <sup>can</sup> they countenance these wthout the leave of higher Powers. D<sup>r</sup> Cobden the present A.D. of London offer'd a while ago, some Ps. & Hymns of the like kind to the Society, but they could not comply with the A.D.'s request to Print them. But besides all this, the Society bid me tell you, that the Stationers Comp<sup>y</sup> would oppose any such Publication, nor would they permit you without a valuable Consideration to sell any Books. A Member of the Society sometime ago Printed a small Collection of Ps. for the use of a Country Parish, but the Stationers C<sup>y</sup> would not allow of the Sale thereof, and the Gentleman was oblig'd to give away the whole Impression.

The Society charge me to their respectful Comp<sup>ts</sup>. I'll return the MS. at such time and manner as you shall appoint

The Society for Promot<sup>g</sup> Asian Knowledge considering how far the Summer is advanc'd beg leave to all humility to remind yo<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>ship of their Ann<sup>y</sup> Sermon and to intimate how much their designs w<sup>d</sup> be serv'd & of Expectations of their Country Members gratified by a speedy publication of it, more particularly of those in Wales who seem impatient for the Society's Account of the distribution of the last Impression of Welsh Bibles &c. in their own Language. I am moreover to acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>ship the Society's Annual Supplies of Benefactions do greatly depend hereupon.

The Society's Booke<sup>ll</sup>. sends me word that he has no demand upon you for Books, so that you have nothing to pay save yo<sup>r</sup> Sub<sup>n</sup>. That you write is £2. 2 but I must beg leave to remind you, that when you commenc'd a Subscriber in the year 1753, you then gave me Orders to set you down at 5 Guineas a year, 6th Sum you also paid the first Year. You have no thoughts I presume Sir, of lessening yo<sup>r</sup> Sub<sup>n</sup> but you forget the Sum you kindly engag'd for when you gav<sup>e</sup> me yo<sup>r</sup> 1st Letter. I should be glad however to know your pleasure, and to receive your directions about disposing of the Pallance

Nov. 27.

Mr Buwiche has informed me of the uneasiness you are under at not having rec<sup>d</sup>. the Society's Ann. Sermon before this Time. I do assure you, Sir, that if Society are under the like uneasiness and concern that they have it not in their power as yet to gratify the Expectation of their Members and Benefactors in this matter.

They have humbly represented the inconvenience and loss they fear they shall sustain by this delay to the Bp of Norwich who was the Preacher: to wth his Ldship was pleas'd to reply that a great Sickness thro'out his Family had hitherto prevented him from transmitting a Copy of his Sermon to the Press, but that if Society might expect it soon.

To Mr Walker at Truro.

Sir

Your Acc<sup>t</sup> of the Death of M<sup>r</sup> Branch gave the Society much concern as they had an high Opinion of his usefulness and worth. You'll be pleas'd to thank his Wif<sup>e</sup> for her remittances, and to deliver her the encl<sup>os</sup>d Rec<sup>t</sup>. The Society are much oblig'd to you, Sir, for yo<sup>r</sup> endeavours to increase the Number of their members

To Mr Drake at Swindorby That the Society having heard that his former Parcel consisting of 20 Gibson on the Sacram<sup>t</sup> had fallen into other hands thro' a mistake in it's Direction & been dispos'd off before he could recover it had unanimously resolv'd to send him a fresh Parcel at their own Expence: and that this Parcel had been sent accordingly 1756 Mr Wadsworth at How that his Bill for £3.9.

 Mar: 10. had been receiv'd and applied so far as it would go towards paying his Subscription & discharging a bill for Books

To Alex: Courthope Esq.

April 1

Sir

I laid yo<sup>r</sup> Favour of 28 Mar: last before the Society who command me to return you their Thanks for having signified your intention of raising yo<sup>r</sup> Subs.
 from One to 5 Guineas & Annum. You will give me leave Sir, to point out a Mistake you have fallen into in the Name of y<sup>e</sup> Society: you call it in yo<sup>r</sup> Letter the Society for Propagation of the Gospel. Whereas it is y<sup>e</sup> Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. This Society has lost some Gifts &c. thro' such Mistakes, and therefore I flatter myself that you'll pardon the liberty I take in setting you right.
